Brad Pitt Walks Away and Britney Spears Comes Back

Break-ups and Make-ups of Hot Celebs

This month I predict Brad Pitt will tell Angelina Jolie he needs to heal his soul and Britney Spears will take back K-Fed.

Review the following in a recent press release:

Linda Furiate has been a practicing astrologer for over 12 years and has made numerous predictions, “The way I see it is that Britney Spears is very confused at the moment about what she wants out of life. This confusion will stick with her for the next year or so. As part of that confusion she will be letting her estranged husband and playboy, Kevin Ferderline back in to her life.”

“I’m not surprised that they will re-unite because when Britney filed for divorce, the planet Mercury was retrograde (a no-no time for signing binding contracts). I do see them calling it quits for real in mid-2009 with their divorce being finalized in early 2010. In the meantime it is highly recommended Britney seek therapy before she has a mental breakdown.”

According to Furiate, Brad Pitt could find himself back in the arms of Jennifer Aniston by Christmas. “Brad’s been holding in a lot of anger the past few months and he is ready to explode, I see him exploding within days of December 21st. He is so career-minded and this past year has taken him on a whirlwind keeping him from focusing on what he loves most – his acting. As he walks away from the ever so elusive, Angelina he will run toward Jennifer to try to re-gain the stability his life is currently lacking. Only problem is – will she take him back? My prediction is “yes” and with open arms.”

Ask Linda ~

Dear Linda:

Why do astrologers ask for your birth time? And do you have to know your birth time in order to get a reading?

Tori F., Ohio

Dear Tori:

Thank you for your question. No, you do not necessarily need your time of birth to get a reading, however to get a more accurate, in-depth reading knowing your exact time of birth is essential.

Astrologers ask for your birth time because aside from just knowing what sign the planets were on the day you were born, the exact time of birth allows for the calculation of the rising sign and house cusps, it then places all of your planets in the appropriate houses. The rising sign, also known as the ascendant, represents your personality and how you market yourself to the world. The sign on the house cusp will show how the energy of the planet(s) will be expressed in that house. Knowing these exact points in the charts allows an astrologer to more accurately predict the timing of events and what event may actually occur. For instance, the 6th house represents our work and our health. Knowing the sign that is on the cusp of the 6th house and any natal planets placed there will be helpful in knowing what kind of work a person may be best suited for. It also determines what health problems a person may encounter. As the planets transit and aspect the house and/or planets in it, it will determine the timing as to when a health problem may develop or when things that you are working on take shape.

So, in essence knowing the exact time of your birth helps an astrologer determine when things will happen in your life.

Thanks,
Linda Furiate
