Greetings ~

Hello All!! I know you haven't heard from me in a while. Things are moving quickly around here. I have a new name and a new direction for the company. It's now called "It's All About Astrology" (www.itsallaboutastrology.com) I still retain Portraits in Determination as it remains the name of my television show. I have come to realize these past few months that my first love is Astrology. I have been practicing this science for over 12 years and have become quite an expert in reading and understanding a person by utilizing their astrological data. So from now on all of my counseling and healing work will include astrology.

If you are interested in getting to know more about yourself and wanting to define the direction of your life while taking the guess work out of decision making, let's talk. In order for me to provide you with an accurate reading I will need your birth information to include: date, place and time of birth. To find out rates and to schedule an appointment call me at (410) 964-1303 or email me at LMFuriate@comcast.net I am always offering discount for first timers. For the month of October that discount is $25.00 off an hour reading.

I have been asked by a couple of online publications to write articles on astrology. Once things are up and running and the articles are published I will send out the linkage for you to access. A little hint...I have tapped into the Hollywood celebrity scene with my astrology readings...more to come. In the meantime, I will provide some celebrity astrological gossip in lieu of the "Ask Linda" column.

Aside from the astrology I am still producing and hosting my television show, Portraits in Determination. I recently taped an episode interviewing Lt. Governor (MD) Michael Steele who is currently running for the U.S. Senate. Michael and his staff were gracious enough to allow me the honor of interviewing such a powerful and charismatic gentleman. The show airs locally on channel 73 in Howard County, Maryland (see schedule below) and can also be accessed via my website at <http://www.portraitsindetermination.com/media/index.html> DVD copies are also available for a small fee.

I look forward to hearing from you. Please feel free to forward this newsletter to all of your friends, family and other contacts.

Be well and prosper,
Linda Furiate

Celebrity Gossip ~

Does Britney Spears Make a Good Mother? Her DOB: 12/2/81

From the way I see it astrologically...Britney Spears did not think long and hard about becoming a mom. Her first child was quickly planned, while her second child, who was not planned, will offer her a great ability to develop a much more spiritual side. She is very karmically connected to both of her sons. Overall Britney is rather detached emotionally; she is much more into things outside of herself than her own personal world. She does have the ability to become a good mom providing her children with everything they need – and not just materially. She just needs to burn out some of the fire of her fast-paced youth and allow herself to become more grounded. It would be wise for her to take the next five or six years and focus totally on her children while putting her career on hold. She doesn't have the attention span to do both. I also see the Federline's calling it quits in their relationship by mid-2009, making things final in January 2010.

If you have a celebrity you want to learn more about email me at LMFuriate@comcast.net and we can post your question and answer in a future issue of It's All About Astrology.
